A combination of new plays and modern classics, leading off with ""The Diary of Anne Frank," will be presented by the University of Nebraska -Lincoln's University Theater during the 1985-86 season.

Rex McGraw, chairman of the UNL Department of Theater Arts and Dance, announced that eight plays will be presented during 1985-86, including an extended run of Charles Dickens' ""A Christmas Carol," and the world premiere of a work by a UNL undergraduate playwright.

Also in October, McGraw will direct the first-ever production of ""A Stone's Throw" by UNL undergraduate David Boles. The play will be presented in the Studio Theater Oct. 24-26 and Oct. 28-Nov. 2.
