There's been many stories written about Donald Trump over the past year. But this Fairy Tale written by David Boles will give you goosebumps!

In this original, David Boles fairytale, you meet an orange-faced Gargoyle. That short-fingered, cloven-hoofed, Vulgarian God is set upon the destruction of the world, and is served by three, misshapen, children as the rest of humanity are rendered mute with nukes. Then -- a child appears -- to tame the hatred, and stanch the drooling, with the gift of kindness; and the world is able to be rebirthed again, in the valley of the homeland.

Here's a modern fairytale I wrote about an orange-faced Gargoyle with short fingers and a love of nukes.

Whoo! Thank you for propagating my modern fairytale! I appreciate the insight and the memetic magnitude! Now we just need to find an illustrator to take the story to the next level! SMILE!
