Mickle: IMPOSSIBLE

(This wonderful video tape opens with an inside shot of the magazine library, then Mickle: IMPOSSIBLE appears, and the theme has decided to slowly come up underneath. The camera then focuses in on a miniature tape recorder. An unknown hand then reaches in from the side of the picture, and turns the recorder on. There is then a very deep and FBIish sounding voice that in a commanding way says...)

FBI

Goodmorning, Secret Agent K2BBAQ, to get to the point of this mission, I want you to rate on a scale of one to ten, Robin Mickle Jr. High School. All of our agents around the Country are doing this. The reason? To make sure that the schools are teaching our young ones how to be a success in whatever they want to do in life. Behind the Time magazines is a manila folder containing some necessary information on the seventh grade teachers that you will be rating. (pause)

(The arm of Secret Agent K2BBAQ then comes in the picture and slowly reaches behind the Time magazines and pulls out the top secret package. How does he know the packet is top secret? It's marked so on the side in red stencil letters, although in black and white video tape it won't matter, so we'll probably put it in hot pink and purple polka dots. In getting back to the point of this stage direction, agent K2BBAQ takes out 8x10 black and white glossy photographs of the teachers and one of Mickle's main entrance. The voice on the tape recorder then narrates...)

Mrs. Bateman, foods teacher. Room _____
Mrs. Schram & Mr. Quick, vocal and instrumental teachers. Room _____
You have a little more than 45 minutes to make your quick evaluation. This tape will self-des.....

(Obviously the tape recorder is inoperative and you can tell by the tone of Secret Agent K2BBAQ's voice that he is obviously disappointed.)

K2BBAQ

Inefficiency takes all the fun out of being a Secret Agent.

Mickle: IMPOSSIBLE
(Con't)

(Our favorite Secret Agent then opens the door and walks through the Media Centre, the camera scanning the room almost as his eyes would see it, actually the camera is our agent, and K2BBAQ is the serial number on the Sony camera. The arms that come from the agent are there to totally confuse the watcher. In truth, we never actually see the real human that is doing the action. The camera then goes down the eighth grade hall and then goes up the stairs and goes into the first door that leads into Mrs. Hinshaw's room. The camera then pans the room, and finally stops ~~at~~ the seventh grade Basic Studies team having one of their 8:00a.m. clandestine meetings. The teachers all turn around as one and Mrs. Hinshaw says...)

MRS. HINSHAW
Goodmorning, what can I do for you?

K2BBAQ
I'm...well..yea.

MRS. HINSHAW
A new student.

K2BBAQ
Perfection in it's truest form. Yep that it...a new student, uh, huh, thats what I am.
(Voice over) Am I a lucky agent. I almost blew my secret cover, I will have to be more careful in the future.
Could you tell me a little more about Basic Studies?

MRS. HINSHAW
Certainly.. What's your name again?

K2BBAQ
Secret Agent K2BBAQ...but my friends just call me "BB" (pronounced "bphgeb")

MRS. HINSHAW

K2BBAQ

Mrs. Hinshaw, thank you for the information.

MRS. HINSHAW

You're very welcome "BB".

(Our hero then goes through the ninth grade hall and makes his way down the steps, and on his way to the gym he acknowledges the cafeteria, and then goes in the main entrance to the gym, and finds Coach Sell in the locker room picking up towels, and muttering under his breath.)

K2BBAQ

Mr. Sell?

MR. SELL

Yes?

K2BBAQ

Goodmorning, I'm "BB" from New Jersey, and could you give me a little information on your co-ed gym classes.

MR. SELL

(Coach Sell gives his 30 second speech on physical education)

K2BBAQ

Thanks a lot coach.

MR. SELL

(Our little Secret Agent then goes through the side exit of the boy's locker room, and then goes up to Mr. Darby's room. Upon K's arrival, Mr. Darby is working on some electrical things.)

MR. DARBY

May I help you?

K2BBAQ

In short my name is "BB", and could you tell me a little about you class.

MR. DARBY

Alright, in World of Construction, we.....

(After Mr. Darby's little speel, our Agent thanks him, and goes to Schram and Quick's room, and they give their little speech on their classes, and then K2BBAQ goes up to Foods, and the same thing happens again.)

(In leaving the Foods room, "BB" gets a splinter in his finger, and then proceeds to go to the nurses office via the office way. Upon his arrival there is this fatherly looking gentleman...)

K2BBAQ
I'm in a lot of pain, would you please get me a bandage please?

MR. MASEK
Pardon. (he gives one of his piercing stares)

K2BBAQ
I'm bleeding.

MR. MASEK
Here you are, I'm not usually the one who does this, but our nurse had an emergency, and I'm filling in for her.
(Mr. Masek puts on the band-aid with the skill of Clara Barton herself.)

K2BBAQ
Thank you very much. What is your job here in Mickle?

MR. MASEK
~~.....~~ Well, I...

K2BBAQ
~~.....~~ Do a lot of things.

MR. MASEK
~~Class, principal.~~ Well, yes, I'm the principal.

K2BBAQ
And doing a wonderful job too. Oh, my look at the time, I must be on my way..thanks again.

(K2BBAQ then goes up to his final class, math, and Mr. Mercer gives his little speech. We are back in the magazine room, and we see K2BBAQ filling out his report, and as he proofreads it we can see that Mickle go a 10+ which of course is perfect. As he licks his envelope, the scene fades to black and "Mickle: IMPOSSIBLE" comes back on the screen and then our ARM comes into the picture one last time, and slaps a sign on the Mickle: IMPOSSIBLE, then music comes up full, and it goes to all black.)
(that has 'ACCOMPLISHED' in big hot pink and purple pdka dotted letters.)
